ARTIST'S STATEMENT:

I am a New York City native, born and raised in the borough of Queens. Now I live and work in Brooklyn. As a painter, I paint what I know: The urban culture of growing up in New York City. As an emerging artist, I have been making art for almost 10 years. My paintings, drawings, collage, and limited edition prints reflect life in New York City telling stories that explore human relationships in an attempt to understand them.
